● ORDER

Upon the application of Mr. Attorney P. V. Mootoosamy for the applicant and after considering the praecipe and affidavit both dated 29 June 2022, the documents thereto annexed and being satisfied that the matter is so urgent as to require the immediate intervention of a Judge before notice of the application is served on the respondents,

I order that an interim order in the nature of an injunction be issued restraining and prohibiting-

- (a) the respondents and/or their representatives and/or agents and/or prepose from henceforth acting on Board Resolution bearing reference Resolution 202110.655 given that respondent no. 1 does not have a Board of Directors in existence as per the law; and
- (b) respondent no. 2 from acting as an ex officio director of respondent no. 1 until such time as the Board of respondent no. 1 is reconstituted by election.

The above interim order to remain in force until the determination of the present matter and I order that service be effected upon the above-named respondents to show cause, if any, why the present interim order should not be made interlocutory pending the determination of the application before the Bankruptcy Division of the Supreme Court for the appointment of an additional director who shall remain in office until elections are organised by respondent no. 1 for the appointment of new directors.

The above interim order in the nature of an injunction is issued at applicant's own risks and perils, and upon its undertaking, through its attorney to abide by any order which the Court or Judge may thereafter make as to damages to the respondents by the granting of this interim order in the nature of an injunction.

The stand of the respondents to be communicated through the e-filing system on or by Thursday the 14th day of July 2022, date on which the present matter is made returnable.

Chambers, this Thursday 30 June 2022.

P. D. R. GOORDYAL-CHITTOO
JUDGE
